Contract Terms and Conditions

The Kentucky Association of School Councils accepts advertising that is consistent with the interests of our primary audience, as determined by the Kentucky Association of School Councils. The Association reserves the right to cancel or reject any advertising.

Space is limited and must be reserved via written insertion order by the first day of the month prior to the month of publication. Ad content must accompany the order. The publication Insights is mailed in September, December, and March to 3800 people.

Mailing date	Ad due date
September	August 1 st
December	November 1 st
March	February 1 st

KASC reserves the right to position the advertisement unless such a position is part of the contract, and to label content as “advertisement.” Cancellations are not accepted past closing date for space. Failing to complete a committed schedule will result in billing adjustment to the actual earned rate.

Payment is required with contract for first insertion, regardless of the number of insertions reserved. Advertisers may prepay the entire cost for multiple insertions, or choose to be invoiced upon publication of each insertion. Advertisers agree to pay KASC within 30 days of receipt of invoice. KASC reserves the right to require prior payment for advertisements when deemed necessary and to refuse to publish ads for any advertiser who is delinquent.

The advertiser and agency assume responsibility for content and will indemnify and hold the publisher harmless from and against any loss, expense, or liability resulting from their advertising, without limitation.

Rates are subject to change.
