

GROWTH MINDSET TOOLKIT OVERVIEW

FOLDER — TITLE		DESCRIPTION	HELPFUL INFO
0	GETTING STARTED	Introduction and suggested steps for developing a growth mindset school or classroom	to get you started
		Suggested plan for implementing growth mindset in a classroom or school	snapshot of the growth mindset-related areas outlined in the rest of the folders
		Monthly Focus chart includes nine months of ready-to-use components: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Professional learning topics</li> <li>• Content for newsletters, website, etc.</li> <li>• Twitter message</li> <li>• Trait/Word of the month</li> <li>• Quote of the month</li> </ul>	includes a description for each component, plus the purpose and suggested uses
1	BACKGROUND	Resources and activities with videos to lay the foundation for people to understand and believe in growth mindset	All the folders have: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Read Me First — explains the content of the folder</li> <li>• Ready-to-use activities and resources               <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Chart at beginning to outline use, audience, and time</li> <li>○ facilitator guide notes for the activities written in blue</li> <li>○ participant copies for activities to pass out in learning settings</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
2	BRAIN	Activities and resources to teach and reinforce that every brain is capable of growing stronger
3	TRAITS	Resources to teach the traits that go along with a growth mindset
4	TALK	Activities and resources to revise the talk in a school to motivate and inspire students to keep learning
5	FEEDBACK	Strategies to improve the feedback given to students
6	ENVIRONMENT	Resources to impact the “environment” which is the broadest representation of attitudes, beliefs, actions, words, etc.; Everything in a classroom can add to (or take away from) the environment/climate/culture needed for growth mindsets to flourish.	